At that time, Area 63 already had extensive experience in all Aspects of Airstream trailers, vintage trailers and general recreational vehicle (RV) systems.

Area 63 was also one of the first to install big, power solar on Airstream products. Area 63 has completed many complete restorations, and still have several long-term modernizations underway. My clients come from all walks-of-life, hobbyists, traveling artists, weekend warriors, and the well-to-do that can easily afford $100,000+ restoration.

In addition to full rehabilitation and restoration services, Area 63 provides consulting to evaluate and informally assess the condition, determine upgrades needed, or appraise the value of vintage trailers. On many occasions, insurance companies and prospective buyers have used our services for pre-purchase decisions. for road safety, and for habitation safety and cleanliness. We have consulted on commercial projects and have done start-up tours for outdoor events companies that needed instruction on how to drive with a trailer and handle a promotional tour with an Airstream. Area63 has also consulted on individual restorations by hobbyists and conducted annual restoration seminars in Albuquerque for the past nine years, which is a 3-day hands-on training events that teach owners skills to repair and restore their own trailers.
